

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 2:19-cr-00148

JOSEPH R. ZIEGLER

RESPONSE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO DEFENDANT'S STANDARD DISCOVERY REQUESTS, AND REQUEST OF THE UNITED STATES FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY

Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 16.1(a) of the Local Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Arraignment Order and Standard Discovery Request entered by the Court in this case on June 19, 2019, the United States of America, by counsel, herewith responds to each of defendant's Standard Discovery Requests as follows:

Preliminary Response:

In this case, the United States provides expansive discovery, which is organized on a CD, as outlined below:

1. Request A - Clay County Sheriff's Office Police Report and Grand Jury transcript of Deputy Ryan Thomas
2. Request E - Items Material to the Defense

Request A: Disclose to defendant the substance of any relevant oral statement made by defendant, whether before or after arrest, in response to interrogation by a person the defendant knew was a government agent if the government intends to use the statement at trial. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A)]

Response: The United States has disclosed the Clay County Sheriff's Office report that includes the substance of oral statements made by the defendant to law enforcement officers and employees of the government. The United States has also disclosed Grand Jury material pursuant to the Order (ECF No. 9) entered on June 17, 2019 that includes statements made by the Defendant. Some or all of the statements in these materials were not made in response to interrogation, but the United States discloses them here out of an abundance of caution.

Request B: Disclose to defendant and make available for inspection, copying or photographing, all of the following:

(i) Any relevant written or recorded statement by the defendant if the statement is within the government's possession, custody, or control; and the attorney for the government knows--or through due diligence could know--that the statement exists. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B)(i)]

Response: Not applicable

(ii) The portion of any written record containing the substance of any relevant oral statement made before or after arrest if the defendant made the statement in response to interrogation by a person the defendant knew was a government agent. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B)(ii)]

Response: Not applicable

(iii) The defendant's recorded testimony before a grand jury relating to the charged offense. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B)(iii)]

Response: Not applicable

Request C: Where the defendant is an organization, e.g., a corporation, partnership, association or labor union, disclose to the defendant any statement described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and (B), if the government contends that the person making the statement (i) was legally able to bind the defendant regarding the subject of the statement because of that person's position as the defendant's director, officer, employee, or agent; or (ii) was personally involved in the alleged conduct constituting the offense and was legally capable to bind the defendant regarding that conduct because of that person's position as the defendant's director, officer, employee, or agent. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C)]

Response: Not applicable

Request D: Furnish the defendant with a copy of defendant's prior criminal record that is within the government's possession, custody, or control if the attorney for the government knows--or through due diligence could know--that the record exists. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D)]

Response: In accordance with Court Order, the United States Probation Office has disclosed a copy of the Defendant's criminal history. The United States has no other records of the Defendant's criminal history.

Request E: Permit the defendant to inspect and to copy or photograph books, papers, documents, data, photographs, tangible objects, building or places, or copies or portions of any of those items, if the item is within the government's possession, custody or control, and (i) the item is material to preparing the defense; (ii) the government intends to use the item in its case-in-chief at trial; or (iii) the item was obtained from or belongs to defendant. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E)]

Response: The United States has disclosed photographs taken on April 4, 2019 of the defendant's vehicle. Also see the response to Request A.

Request F: Permit the defendant to inspect and to copy or photograph the results or reports of any physical or mental examination and of any scientific tests or experiment if (i) the item is within the government's possession, custody, or control; (ii) the attorney for the government knows--or through due diligence could know--that the item exists; and (iii) the item is material to preparing the defense or the government intends to use the item in its case-in-chief at trial. [Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(F)]

Response: Not applicable.

Request G: Give to the defendant a written summary of any testimony the government intends to use under Rules 702, 703 or 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence during its case-in-chief at trial. If the government requests discovery under Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 16(b)(1)(C)(ii) and the defendant complies, the government must, at the defendant's request, give to the defendant a written summary of testimony that the government intends to use under Rules 702, 703, or 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence as evidence at trial on the issue of the defendant's mental condition. The summary must describe the witness's opinions, the bases and reasons for those opinions, and the witness's qualifications.

[Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G)]

Response: Not applicable

Request H: Disclose to defendant all evidence favorable to defendant, including impeachment evidence, and allow defendant to inspect, copy or photograph such evidence.

Response: The United States is unaware of any such evidence other than that which may otherwise be included herein.

Request I: Notify defendant of all evidence the government intends to introduce pursuant to Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence.

Response: The United States does not intend to present any evidence pursuant to Rule 404(b). However, if such material is discovered, the United States will timely notify defendant.

Request J: Disclose to defendant all reports of government "mail cover," insofar as the same affects the government's case against the defendant or any alleged aiders and abettors or co-conspirators.

Response: Not applicable.

Request K: Disclose to defendant any matter as to which the government will seek judicial notice.

Response: The United States will seek judicial notice that (1) Clay County is within the Southern District of West Virginia and (2) an Assistant United States Attorney is an employee of the United States.

Request L: Disclose to defendant and make available for inspection, copying or photographing, the results of any interception of a wire, oral or electronic communication in the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence could become known, to the attorney for the government, which contains any relevant statement made by the defendant or which is material to the preparation of the defendant's defense or which is intended for use by the government as evidence in its case-in-chief at the trial. For each such interception, disclose (1) any application for an order authorizing the interception of a wire or oral communication; (2) any affidavits filed in support thereof; and (3) any court order authorizing such interception.

Response: Not applicable

Request M: Provide notice to defendant of the government's intention to use evidence pursuant to Rule 12(b)(4)(B) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Response: The United States reserves the right to use all information and evidence disclosed herein or made available for inspection and copying pursuant to this Response and such information and evidence which may be discovered and finally provided to defendant.

Any discovery provided that is not mandated by Court order, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, federal statute or federal case law, is provided voluntarily as a matter of discretion solely to expedite and facilitate litigation of this case.
